CATHOLIC-PROTESTANT CHURCH
Keystone, Nebraska

Built in the early 1900's in a community too small for two churches was this unique little Catholic-Protestant church, believed to be the only one of its kind in the world. Located near Ogallala it has "reversible" pews to face either altar. It is open to the public.

Hal Brown Studio—Norton, Kansas

48180

5R
150
125

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

POST CARD